'SHOWDOWN' SET FOR GOVERNORS

A couple of two-fisted, straight-shootin' governors who didn't put that sort of thing into moth balls following their elections will face off at ten paces here Saturday.

Neither California Governor Edmund (Pat) Brown or Colorado Governor Stephen (Steve) McNichols stands a chance of being "gut-shot" or even "winged."

They'll be testing their draws. Desert Circus Chairman Mrs. J. Ross Clark said yesterday, just for the sheer sport of it.

THE "SHOWDOWN" between the two gubernatorial chieftains, on a "rigged" western street, will be conducted as part of the Kangaroo Court to be held beginning at 4 p.m. Saturday, in the Tennis Club here. The club will be open to the public for the event, according to co-chairmen Robert Marx, Eddie Meyerson and Don Levy.

McNichols isn't coming to Brown's stomping grounds alone. A little wary, he "bired out" the services of fancy gunslinger Bob Six—who also owns the Colorado-based Continental Airlines — and his Six-Guns, a team of rugged gunmen. Six is slated to act as High Sheriff for the Desert Circus but he'll halt those responsibilities long enough to back up his governor.

BROWN, reported "panicky" at the announcement McNichols would be accompanied to the scene of the showdown, immediately called Hollywood — where, naturally, most of the cowboys hang out — and grabbed off the services of Steve McQueen, who stars in CBS-TV's "Wanted, Dead or Alive," Peter Breck, who headlines NBC-TV's "Black Saddle,"

Big Four Foreign Ministers Meet

WASHINGTON — UPI — The western Big Four foreign ministers met again today in efforts to work out a foolproof bargaining position in forthcoming talks with Russia on Berlin and Germany.

The representatives of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany resumed their talks at the State Department.

OFFICIALS said they planned to tackle the tough problem of the kind of deal to offer Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev on Berlin's future should the Russians insist on showdown negotiations immediately.

They also were scheduled to consider the general problem of European security. Officials said they faced the necessity of narrowing their differences over whether to negotiate separate security and disarmament agreements with Russia if the Kremlin refuses to take these solutions into a general German reunification plan, as the allies would like.

BRITISH FOREIGN Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano arrived a few minutes early for the scheduled meeting with Acting Secretary of State Christian Herter.

French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville arrived just before the scheduled meeting time and the four ministers then gathered in the conference room.

OFFICIALS SAID the four allies are in general agreement on an American plan calling for conclusion of security and disarmament pacts at various stages along the road to German unification, beginning with a loose "confederation" between East and West Germany.

However, the Allies were reliably reported to differ considerably on just what to do if the Russians refuse to consider the long-range "package" and demand immediate negotiations on various European problems.

Alcorn Says He's Quitting As GOP Boss

Percy, Bliss, Morton Eyed as Successors For Republican Chief

WASHINGTON — UPI — Meade Alcorn advised President Eisenhower today that he will resign as Republican national chairman, effective next week.

Alcorn held an unannounced morning meeting with the President, then scheduled a news conference later today to announce his plans.

BUT IT WAS learned that Alcorn told Eisenhower he would submit his resignation to a GOP National Committee meeting here April 10-11.

It was understood that Alcorn, who has held the chairmanship for two years, felt that it was imperative that he return to his Hartford, Conn., law practice.

Top Republican sources said GOP National Committee members had discussed offering the chairmanship to Charles H. Percy, 39, head of the Bell & Howell Co., and chairman of a special committee set up by Alcorn to draft long-range programs for the party.

RAY BLISS, veteran Ohio Republican state chairman, and Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky also got top billing in the speculation on a successor to Alcorn.

Others discussed as possible successors included Richard F. Cooper, New Hampshire national committeeman; Secretary of Interior Fred A. Seaton, who was one of Eisenhower's chief campaign planners in 1952 and 1956, and Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, former GOP national chairman and now counsel for the National Committee.

Ailing Marine Forces Airliner To Land Here

TWA Flight 65 from St. Louis to Los Angeles made a forced landing in Palm Springs yesterday afternoon, when a passenger on the plane was apparently seized with a convulsion.

David Lee Neal, 20, a U. S. Marine from Camp Pendleton, boarded the TWA flight at St. Louis, and suffered what was mistakenly taken for a heart attack.

Emergency crews and an ambulance were waiting at the airport when the plane landed and rushed the patient to the Desert Hospital, where Dr. P. A. Staley said that the youth had apparently suffered a spasm.

PIRAHNA IN WATER? OFFICIAL IRATE UNTIL 'APRIL FOOL'

A report that a school of deadly South American piranha had been loosed in the Tahquitz Canyon reservoir was denied here yesterday by officials of the Palm Springs Water Company.

"Heavens, no," snapped Paul Payne, general manager of the utility company. "I never heard of such a thing."

Piranha are small but savage fish that infest the tributaries of the Amazon River in South America. A school of the highly voracious piscivores has been known to devour a human being — bones and all — in a matter of seconds.

Payne said that he had no idea of who would want to put piranha in the city's water reservoir but suddenly recalled a very important factor.

"I forgot all about it being April 1," he said, laughing weakly. "—ha ha ha—a funny gag."

City Building Points to New Record

First Three Months Top Last Year By Half Million

Palm Springs construction appeared to be headed for a new record this year as city officials reported $3,444,176 worth of new building for the first three months of 1959.

This year's building total is almost $500,000 above the $2,944,700 logged for the first three months of 1958, City Building Department officials said.

LAST MONTH, Palm Springs builders added $1,232,715 worth of new construction to the city, which is slightly lower than the $1,408,000 registered in March, 1958.

New apartments claimed the largest share of last month's building figures. A total of five apartments, involving 84 units, were valued at $545,000.

Construction men erected 24 new dwellings, worth $405,000, last month, and added 34 pools, valued at $113,000. This brings the city's total swimming pool count to 1,861.

ALSO LISTED among the 106 building permits issued last month were 28 dwelling alterations and additions, $39,215; one apartment addition, $500; three commercial buildings, $75,000; three commercial alterations, $1,100.

Drive Association To Meet April 2 With City Group

Palm Canyon Drive Association today scheduled a 2 p.m., April 2, meeting with city officials to discuss a three-point program, and invited all property owners located north of Alejo Road to attend the session.

City officials are scheduled to be present, including several councilmen, according to Association President Culver Nichols and Vice President and Committee Chairman Sol Lesser.

The three-point program includes: Installation by the city of lighted palm trees; street paving by the state, and installation of sidewalks, curbs and gutters, possibly under a local assessment district.

The meeting is scheduled in the City Council chambers.

Where's Kelly?

Police Seek Mom Of 'Stolen' Tykes

Palm Springs police today exercised that old refrain of "Has Any Body Here Seen Kelly?" as they continued their hunt for the elusive mother of two children involved in an attempted abduction here Sunday.

But "Kelly" in this time, is Mrs. Jane Kelly, former wife of West Virginia steel executive Richard Raese, who allegedly hired private detective Ray Moulton to "steal" her three sons.

MOULTON, 49-YEAR-OLD San Jose private eye, and his assistant, Charles S. Lewis, 33, were arrested Sunday after an apparently abortive attempt to take the boys from their father's rented Village home.

Both are still in custody here, in lieu of $2,500 bail each, awaiting preliminary hearing scheduled for Judge Eugene Theriault's Justice Court April 6 on two counts of child-stealing.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE, who was "America's Sweetheart" to millions of youngsters two decades ago, returns to Palm Springs to act as queen of the 23rd Annual Desert Circus. Shirley, now prominent as a TV star, will officiate at the Saturday parade, the Friday "Big Top" Ball and the Saturday "Kangaroo Court."

SHIRLEY TEMPLE GETS 'QUEEN' TITLE

Actress Shirley Temple adds a colorful, new page to her personal storybook this week when she arrives here to serve as Queen of the 23rd Annual Desert Circus parade.

Desert Circus Association President announced today that the lovely television and screen star has accepted an invitation to play the role of queen.

SHE AND HER husband, Charles Alden Black, are expected to fly here from San Francisco Friday.

Once the dimpled, curly-topped darling of the film industry, Miss Temple today has achieved new prominence in the television industry as hostess, narrator and often star of "Shirley Temple's Storybook."

Twisters Hit Hard In Hillsboro Area

HILLSBORO, Tex. (UPI)—At least eight tornadoes hit sleeping communities and homes over a front hundreds of miles long in Texas and Oklahoma Tuesday night.

They killed at least six persons and injured 67 others, four of them critically.

A tornado that hit two communities between Hillsboro and Waco, in central Texas, was worse than the other seven combined. It accounted for all of the six dead and 38 of the injured.

THAT TORNADO blew an automobile from the road, killing Mrs. C. B. Bruner, 27, wife of a James Connally Air Force Base flight surgeon. It injured her husband and two children.

It drove so many splinters into the body of A. Lee Harris, 71, Bynum, Tex., that doctors at Hillsboro said he looks like a "pin cushion."

The twister destroyed or damaged an estimated 75 homes and other buildings between Hillsboro and Waco. A refuge for the homeless was set up in the First Baptist Church in Hillsboro.

THE OTHER tornadoes, and the damage and casualties they inflicted included:

Walnut Bend and Cattsburg, Tex. — Nineteen persons injured, including two seriously. Farm buildings and a natural gas plant destroyed. Walnut Bend and Cattsburg are about 120 miles north of Hillsboro.

Henderson, Tex. — None injured. A garage and a home destroyed and trees plucked up by their roots.

Perrin Air Force Base, Tex. — A tornado touched ground, but no injuries or damage reported. Perrin AFB is north of Dallas, near the Oklahoma line.

SILVER CITY, Okla. — Six injured, including one seriously. Terleton, Okla. — Damage but no casualties reported. Morrison, Okla. — Damage but no casualties reported.

AF Jet Tanker Explodes, Kills Four Crewmen

KILLEEN, Tex. (UPI) — An Air Force KC135 jet tanker exploded in flight and crashed Tuesday night in an area swept by violent thunderstorms and near the path of a tornado.

It hurled the bodies of four crewmen over 10 acres of dense woodland.

The victims were Maj. Jesse L.E. Myrich, 41, Wichita Falls, Tex.; 1st Lt. Rodney Anderlitch, 25, San Antonio, Tex.; 1st Lt. Philip C. De Bonis, 25, Newark, N.J.; and T. Sgt. Herman Allison Clark, 45, Tampa, Fla.

Seven Tabbed

Directors Elected By CC Chamber

CATHEDRAL CITY — Seven members of the Chamber of Commerce were elected to the board of directors last night at a potluck supper and election meeting at the Town Hall.

Retiring president John Down made a report on the activities of the Chamber during the past year, and spoke of the investigation the Chamber is currently making concerning the pros and cons of incorporation.

ELECTED TO THE Board of Directors for the coming year were: Claude S. Cobb, Robert Hollister, L. C. Lewis and Donald Veitch, incumbents, and Del Germain, Courtland Hadden and Wayne V. Kizer, new members. Members retained on the board were: Paul W. Clark, John W. Down, George B. Gifford, Warner S. Moon, Jeff Seutener, Ivan J. Sharp, Bert W. Wade and Orvil Zappe.

THE SUBJECT OF incorporation will be discussed further at the regular meeting of the Chamber to be held Tuesday, April 7, at which time officers will be elected for the coming year.

Cathedral City residents have been talking incorporation for four years, but have moved carefully to avoid any pitfalls that have struck other communities.

The community today has between 4,000 and 5,000 residents, and the community's leaders, including the important Cathedral City Realty Board, have spoken out in favor of the incorporation.

'When On, Do Something,' Is Ray Bolger's Philosophy

By GEORGE LAINE
A few years ago, at a celebration honoring the 25th anniversary of New York's Waldorf-Astoria, Herbert Hoover recalled that he had helped get things operating at the hotel when he was President a quarter of a century earlier "simply by pressing a button."

The angular man with the quick smile and odd-gaited walk who followed the onetime chief executive to the podium didn't hesitate. "We all know," he remarked, "that if you pressed any kind of a button in the Waldorf-Astoria, Mr. Hoover, nobody came."

YESTERDAY, lounging beside the swimming pool of the house in which he is staying during his 10-day stint at the Chi Chi's Star-Lite Room, Ray Bolger chuckled at the memory.
"It's hard to follow a former President," he said. He sat up. "But I was on. I had to do something."
That, in brief, is prevailing show business philosophy: When you're on, do something. In Bolger's case, the attitude carries an even greater demand: When you're on, do something good.

IT'S ALWAYS been that way for Bolger. He recalls his feeling of determination to become a dancer after watching the late Fred Stone dance in "Jack O'Lantern" back "around 1918 or 1919."
"He was more than a dancer," Bolger said softly. "He was an institution."

Bolger admits to utilizing some of the Stone techniques in his creation of the scarecrow in "The Wizard of Oz." He also admits to borrowing phases of technique from other great dancers who were his contemporaries. He cited such dancers as Jack Donahue, Jim Barton and "Bojangles" Robinson—in addition to Stone—from whom he has taken certain segments of dancing.
"You get one thing from one dancer, another thing from another," he said, spreading his hands meaningfully, "and pretty soon you have your own style."

"BUT JUST ability never made a star," Ray said, with an unmistakable seriousness stamped on his face.
"Most of the chances for stardom rest with the mental attitude of the star," he said. "It used to be that vaudeville contracts carried a clause defining the artist as 'unique, extraordinary and cannot be duplicated' but it was only a piece of paper."

"You can't show it to an audience that you're not selling, and you can't wave it in front of a club owner and hope he hires you." "Today, if you're going to be a star, you have to grow with your work. You have to educate yourself and keep educating yourself."
IN TODAY'S entertainment world there are a scattered handful of stars, in the complete sense of that ambiguous word, Bolger believes.
"There's Sinatra for one," he said. "And Dean Martin for another. And there's a few others. Sammy Davis, Judy Garland, Danny Kaye. Maybe a couple more."
"They all started with something and by a process of broadening their scope have managed to achieve a much greater status."
"They're stars. They need nothing out there but a backdrop and they can deliver. That's the mark."

MARRIED SINCE 1929 to Gwen Rickard, who halted a promising song-writing career to throw all of her energies into building Ray's career, Bolger figures his spouse as big an asset as his legs.
"Gwen does everything for me but dance," he said, inclining his head to the living room where she was tidying a coffee table.
Ray's biggest Broadway success—the laugh packed, "Where's Charley?"—was produced by Gwen. Bolger halted it after more than a thousand performances (1948-51) to film the story.

"I'D STILL BE playing it if it hadn't been for the movie," Ray reminisced. "We may revive it for summer stock performances around the country. We've had some requests."
He also had some other requests, including bids for two movies, a solid line of engagement pieces from clubs throughout the nation and a couple of feelers from new Broadway shows.
"I'm looking 'em over," Ray winked. The "Where's Charley?" revival, high on his list, could take him off the market for six months or more.

STILL PERSPIRING from a fast nine holes at O'Donnell, Ray stretched. (He shot a 33, bills himself as "an erratic golfer" but plans to test the greens at Thunderbird, Eldorado and a couple of other places before he leaves.) "I don't have much time for golf," he said. "Mostly it's work." "Fortunately for me, I love it."
The 33 at O'Donnell surprised Bolger. He hadn't figured he'd shoot so low.
"I gave up the bottle for Lent," he smiled. "Maybe that's the reason."

Franco Today Dedicates Valley Of the Fallen

MADRID (UP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco today dedicated his controversial "Valley of the Fallen" to Spain's one million civil war dead but publicly ignored a plea to free political prisoners.

The 67-year-old chief of state chose the 20th anniversary of the end of the war for formal dedication of the mammoth basilica carved out of solid granite in which he plans to rebury many of the civil war fallen.

FRANCO, ACCOMPANIED by his wife, and wearing the khaki uniform of a captain-general of the Spanish army, attended mass in the basilica. It was celebrated by Spain's cardinal primate, Enrique Pla y Deniel.

After the mass, in a brief speech to an estimated throng of 20,000 outside the basilica, Franco said that the civil war had "reduced to powder the international brigades which were very superior in number."

HE SAID THE civil war was "a true crusade" which had saved Spain from Communism. He said Spain now enjoyed political unity and internal peace.

Although the huge memorial was designed to hold all of Spain's civil war dead, many veterans groups opposed mass removal of bodies from established military cemeteries and it was decided those in recognized cemeteries would remain where they are.

'Hostess With the Mostest' Is Title for Mrs. Coates

PALM DESERT — An outstanding Palm Desert "Hostess with the Mostest" is Mrs. Stanley Kenneth Coates, who maintains in her Parosella Street home "Mejilla," a perpetual "open house" for members of the "Debutantes of Southern California."

Affiliated with the Los Angeles Athletic Club, the organization, with Mrs. Coates as the chairman, has been the center of a socially highlighted "Sweetheart Ball" and presentation to society of prominent Debs.

AS VOLUNTEER coordinator of debutante activities for the club, Mrs. Coates leads a busy, if not frenetic, existence. Spending part of each week in her Palm Desert home, she devotes the remainder of her time to the Debs, whose number this year totals a glamorous, affluent and pious group.

"They're easy to entertain," Mrs. Coates explained, as she relaxed in the patio of her desert home, while watching her houseguests frolic in the pool. "And each one, without exception, is a pleasure to work with."

Working, in this instance, means helping the girls through their cultural, social and charitable activities, to obtain sufficient credits to qualify as outstanding debutantes of the year, on the occasion of their formal presentation to society.

MODELING, STAGING shows and assisting at social and charity events, are a part of the daily routine of the Debs, as well as learning correct posture, how to enter a room, preside at a table and on "luncheon" and other party occasions, design and execute their own costumes.

"Most of all they enjoy raising money for charity," Mrs. Coates said. "Each year we sponsor some worthwhile cause. Last year it was the Assistance League. At present, we're in the midst of a salvage drive for the ROTC. Between times," she smiled, "we relax and play — either here in the desert or at my mountain home."

MARRIED to a well known industrial designer, Mrs. Coates, who is affectionately referred to by her hand-picked brood as "our own Auntie Mame," is a dark-haired, flashing-eyed woman, who, like her literary prototype, exudes her own natural "joie d'vivre."

"It's a trick to keep pace with them," she laughed easily. "At present I have four guests. Last week there were eight. During Desert Circus week in Palm Springs, I'll have 60 USC boys on my hands—all handsome and uniformed to drill in the parade. That," she concluded with a twinkle, "will undoubtedly bring all the girls rushing from town."

In Resort Area

Owners Urged To 'Place' Pets

It's "pet dumping" time in the resort area again and officials of the Desert Humane Society of Coachella Valley today urged winter residents leaving the area not to abandon their pets.

"Every year, many of our winter guests abandon their dogs and cats, often leaving them to starve in the desert," said Mrs. Aileen Stephens, executive secretary for the Society.

This year, Mrs. Stephens urged pet owners to place their unwanted animals up for adoption with the society instead of abandoning them "to their fates."

"Please don't desert your pets," Mrs. Stephens urged. "Leave your pets with us, if you can't take them with you."

MOVING VIOLATIONS

Now that the Department of Motor Vehicles has launched its promising campaign to suspend the licenses of drivers found guilty of four or more moving violations in any 12-month period, it might be in order to explain what a moving violation could consist of.

It would be an over-simplification to say merely that any illegal or dangerous act committed while driving would constitute a moving violation. The Vehicle Code lists at least 200 things a driver might do to have his record marred.

THE MORE common violations we all know, of course. These are speeding, driving while drunk or under the influence of narcotics, running through a pedestrian crosswalk, running a red light or boulevard stop, hit and run, etc., etc.

The good driver also knows that it is wrong to commit any of the less obvious bad maneuvers, such as cutting in or changing lanes in crowded traffic, jumping the gun at a signal light, blowing his horn unnecessarily, straddling a lane divider, failure to signal properly.

MOST OF the seemingly minor sins of driving simply are indicative of a wrong attitude. They show a lack of common courtesy, and could very well brand a driver as a member of that "fraternity of frolicking freeway freaks," or "boulevard beatniks" who are about to be set adrift.

Driver improvement experts of the Department of Motor Vehicles have learned a lot about driver attitude in the 12 years they have been working with problem drivers.

"Put the meekest lamb behind the wheel of a powerful automobile, and you can have a lion on your hand," these experts will tell you. "By their actions they roar out their defiance of law and order and social decency, and make driving a nightmare for every other motorist on the road."

"AND WHEN they are called in to face a hearing as negligent operators, they are sullen, often insulting, seldom repentant. So what? Is their attitude toward the evidence that they have driven dangerously?"

Until now, it has been the policy of DMV to "keep 'em driving safely," rather than wholesale removal from the licensed driver lists. That policy, under Director Robert McCarthy, has undergone a radical revision.

"If a driver can prove by a proper attitude toward his obligations to other drivers that he could be a safe risk on the highways, we will continue to work for his improvement," McCarthy said.

"But we are all washed up with those drivers who think they can go on getting away with murder."

Church Meet Set Thursday

Delegates from Episcopal Churches throughout the San Bernardino Convocation will convene in Palm Springs for their bi-annual conference with St. Paul's in the Desert as host parish on Thursday April 2.

The convocation, comprises parishes from Apple Valley, Arlington, Barstow, Beaumont, Banning, Claremont, Colton, Corona, Elsinore, Fontana, Hemet, Indio, Lake Arrowhead, Needles, Ontario, Redlands, Rialto, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Jacinto, Trona, Twentynine Palms, Upland, Victorville and Yucaipa.

THE CONFERENCE will open with a celebration of Holy Communion, the Rt. Rev. Donald J. Campbell, celebrant. Following the church service, a series of discussions and conferences regarding Convocation activities will be held throughout the day.

An instructional program will be presented by the Department of Social Relations, under the direction of the Rev. John Burt, rector of All Saints in Pasadena.

LUNCHEON WILL BE served to an anticipated 200 people by the Guild of St. Paul's in the Desert.

Trailer Owners Issued Warning

The speed limit for vehicles towing trailers on public streets and highways is 45 miles per hour and this limit will be strictly enforced, reports the California Highway Patrol.

Bradford M. Crittenden, commissioner of the patrol, noted that the 45 mile per hour limit is a fixed maximum and not a "prima facie" limit.

"THIS SIMPLY means that any motorist who exceeds 45 miles per hour while towing a trailer is in violation of the California vehicle code," Crittenden declared. "He will not be able to plead that existing conditions made it safe for him to exceed that speed."

The speed limit applies to all passenger motor vehicles regardless of weight and to commercial motor vehicles weighing less than 4,000 pounds when towing a trailer, coach, trailer, semi-trailer, or other type vehicle.

CRITTENDEN NOTED also that the vehicle code requires motorists drawing trailers to have proper lighting, approved connections between the car and the trailer, and adequate rear-view mirrors. "More detailed information concerning the rules and regulations governing towing of trailers may be obtained from any office of the California Highway Patrol," the commissioner said.

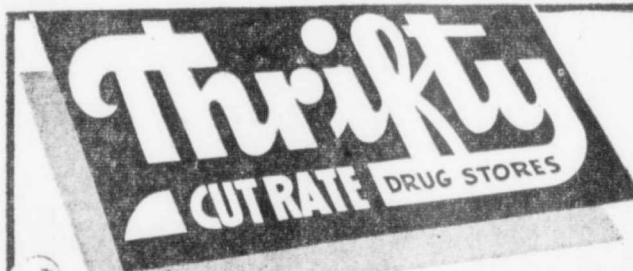

Students Hit All-Time High Enrollment

Student enrollment in Palm Springs schools has hit an all-time high of 3,363, Schools Supt. Dwight Twist reported today.

Dr. Twist said the figure represents an 8.3 per cent rise over last year's record high enrollment for the Palm Springs Unified School District.

A breakdown of school enrollment figures shows that 1,982 youngsters are registered for classes ranging from kindergarten through sixth grade.

Seventh and eighth grades have 472 pupils and grades nine through 12 have 909 students, Twist said. School enrollment for the same period last year was 3,104, indicating an increase of 259 pupils to date.

MILK BILLS HEARD BY LEGISLATORS

Assemblyman Lee Backstrand, up to his neck in legislative matters at Sacramento, said this week that bills dealing with the price to be paid for milk used in production of cottage cheese and regulating the price to be paid farmers for milk used in the production of such by-products as cottage cheese and buttermilk.

"THE ARGUMENTS being advanced by the supporters and opponents of the bills put the law-

Church Complies With Zoning Rules of City

Palm Springs Community Church has filed new plans for its new church to be located across from its present site on Belardo Road, marking a reduction in the number of seats and adding sufficient parking for the proposed seating. Planning Director Hy Raes reported to the council at its conference session this week that the Community Church has now complied with all conditions for a building permit.

Under the new plans the seating has been decreased by 170 seats, making the total seating capacity 638. The building itself has been decreased in size, and the new proposed high tower with the cross on top has been done away with, and a smaller one will be placed beside the new building.

Women's Club Leader Moves To El Monte

DESEIT HOT SPRINGS — Helen Young, a longtime DHS resident prominent in community women's activities, has moved to El Monte. Mrs. Young helped organize the DHS Women's Club and was a charter member of the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation and the Toastmistress Club. She was also a member of the Park Recreation District. Her new address is 4464 North Esto, El Monte.

Titanic Storm Takes Five Lives

NEW YORK — (AP) — A titanic five-day-old storm that is disrupting Atlantic shipping schedules has taken at least four lives and injured a score of persons aboard harassed ocean liners. The captain of the North German Lloyd liner Berlin, en route from Bremerhaven to New York, radioed today that four crew members were washed overboard and presumed drowned last Saturday. The report said the men were lost in spite of immediate rescue attempts when a giant wave swept over the 19,000-ton liner 700 nautical miles northeast of the Azores.

County Bond Sales Reported

Riverside County sales of United States E and H Savings Bonds for the month of February were totaled today as $200,945. County Volunteer Chairman J. S. Bordwell said that the sales for the January through February period of this year were $443,297 as compared to $660,330 for the same period of last year.

COMING OR GOING, Peace Pilgrim creates an unusual sight in her all-blue—the color of peace—costume. The slight New Jersey woman has strolled more than 14,000 miles of a scheduled 25,000 pilgrimage for peace. She never takes rides, accepts money, asks for food or seeks lodging believing that her pilgrimage would suffer if she did. (Desert Sun Photo)

PEACE PILGRIM WALKS FOR PEACE

By GEORGE LAINE
If a slight, silver-haired matron wearing an all-blue costume invites you to "go for a walk," you'd better decline the invitation. She's Peace Pilgrim and she doesn't think of a walk in terms like around the block or down to the corner drug store.
"I figure, conservatively, that I've walked more than 14,000 miles since I started my pilgrimage. I'm going to keep walking until world peace is in sight."

LOTS OF PEOPLE — mostly young men — have tried to walk along with Peace Pilgrim.

"They usually give up after about 10 miles," she said yesterday, her blue eyes twinkling. "But that's not unusual. They have no real reason for walking. I do." Emphasizing that the mission, not the walk, is the important part of her pilgrimage, Peace Pilgrim annually does one "mission" in the northern reaches of the nation and one in the southern section. They are split to take advantage of weather for Peace Pilgrim cannot stop for lodging whenever it begins to rain.

"I SAID IN MY vow that I would walk until mankind has learned the ways of peace," she sighed. "Sometimes it seems as though it will never happen."

MARINES Praised FOR ASSISTANCE IN STATION FIRE

TWENTYNINE PALMS — Marines attached to Marine Corps Base here have won the gratitude of F. A. Farr, whose Adobe Road gas station was saved from fire by a group of Marines enroute back to their base.
Brigadier General A. L. Bower, commandant of the base, received a letter this week from Farr, thanking the Marines for their quick thinking which, in conjunction with action by the Twentynine Palms Volunteer Fire Department, extinguished the blaze.

"As I was unable to thank each of the men individually on the morning of the fire," Farr wrote the general, "I would like at this time to praise the men of your command for their courage in the face of an emergency."

The fire did considerable damage, but the quick action by Marines and volunteer firemen stopped the blaze before it could ignite the 13,000 gallons of inflammables stored at the station.

First Annual Desert Circus Golf Tourney Slated Friday

Venturi, Wall Favorites to Win Masters

SPORTS in the SUN

The Desert Sun Wednesday, April 1, 1959 8A

6 Courses Involved In Event

Arrangements have been completed for the First Annual Desert Circus Golf Tournament, to be played Friday, April 3, it was announced by Mrs. J. Ross Clark II, Milton Hicks and Russell Wade, co-chairmen of the event.

All golfers playing on Friday at the following courses have been invited to participate: Bermuda Dunes, Indian Wells, O'Donnell, Ranch Club, Tamarisk and Thunderbird.

Prizes will be offered to the lady and gentleman for low net at each course. In addition, there will be a grand prize for ladies' low net from scores turned in from all the participating clubs.

Since Eldorado Country Club will be involved in its Sunburst Tournament, it will make a cash donation to Desert Circus Association charities in lieu of participating in this tournament.

The starters at all participating golf clubs have full details, and the entry fee consists of a $5.00 donation to Desert Circus charities.

Harris, Fleeman Meet Tonight in Televised Bout

DALLAS, Tex. — (UPI) — Back-woody Roy Harris, who lost a game but bloody bid for heavy-weight champ Floyd Patterson's title on pay TV, gets his first chance to show the nation's free television audience tonight that he's good enough to permit another chance.

Harris and his manager, Lou Viscusi, are so confident that the colorful fighting schoolteacher will make such an impression that they were willing to risk Harris' rocky ring reputation against Donnie Fleeman, a hard-hitting Texas light heavyweight that Harris failed to put down in a previous effort.

The Cat and Shoot, Tex., product seems certain to win again—just as he did when he piled up a lop-sided decision over Fleeman in the same Memorial Auditorium ring four months ago, but he's going to have to make it a real, slam-bang show to impress the regular Wednesday night ABC-7 p.m. p.s.t. television audience.

Celts, Syracuse Meet in Decider

BOSTON (UPI) — The chips are down and the players are up for tonight's seventh and deciding game between the Boston Celtics and the Syracuse Nationals in their Eastern Division playoffs.

The winner meets the astounding Minneapolis Lakers in the National Basketball Association's final playoffs which start Saturday. The lowly Lakers shocked the basketball world last weekend by ousting the defending champion St. Louis Hawks in six games.

Stanford Catcher Top CIBA Batter

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Stanford catcher Art Von Wronski, collecting four hits in seven attempts for an average of .571, today had an early lead in California Intercollegiate Baseball Association batting statistics.

Wronski collected his hits in two games as his team defeated UCLA twice in the only CIBA action.

The other four clubs were idle.

FIGHT RESULTS

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Eddie Macchia, 206, Redding, Calif., stopped Clarence Williams, 197, Hollywood, Calif. (9).

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (UPI) — Art Presley, 141, New York, outpointed Joe Louis Murphy, 141, Albuquerque (10).

SAO PAULO, Brazil (UPI) — Luis Inacion, 176½, Brazil, outpointed Gregorio Peralta, 174½, Argentina (10).

Bobby Flores notched the first win for Palm Springs in the opening game of the Riverside County League yesterday when the Tribe took San Jacinto 8 to 4 on the loser's diamond. LeRoy Segundo blanked San Jac in the last two innings.

The Braves got away to a shaky start and were trailing 1 to 4 in the fourth. They evened it up at 44 then and in the fifth barged ahead on a four-run burst.

Second baseman Marty Berk led the Indian attack with four hits in four times up.

The line score:
Palm Springs 010 340 8-4 2
San Jacinto 031 000 0-4 2
Flores, Segundo (6) and Lewis: Wile, Johnson (4) Haight (6) and Reed.

Grant Ends Season With 51 Winners

BOWIE, Md. — (UPI) — Jockey Howard Grant closed out his record-breaking riding spree at Bowie by booting home two winners on the last day of the meeting. Grant's winning mounts, raised his total to 51 winners for the 44-day season.

Solons Rally in Eighth To Beat Mounties 8-4

Sacramento's Solons, who only Saturday were the disreputable possessors of a sickly one win, five loss record in Grapefruit League competition, came from behind in the best crowd-pleasing fashion yesterday to edge Vancouver, 5-4, and bring their practice mark to four wins, six losses.

Village fans of the awakening.

Sacs anxious to eye the Solons will have to cool their heels for six days unless they want to hit the road with the visiting Sacramentans.

Hi-Lo Desert Golf Group to Meet at Brawley Course

Brawley Country Club will be the scene of the April meeting of the Hi-Lo Desert Golf Course Superintendent's Association, it was announced today by Ed Currlin, secretary-treasurer of the group.

The meeting will start at 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, April 8, with a tour of the Brawley course, followed by refreshments, luncheon and a meeting lasting until 4 p.m. Members of the association are asked to attend and wives are invited.

Salas Loses Nod to Underdog Ed Pace

SAN BERNARDINO — (UPI) — Former world lightweight champion Lauro Salas lost a 10-round decision to underdog Eddie Pace of Los Angeles Tuesday night at Orange Show Auditorium.

Pace, 136, won every round except one from Salas, 130½, Monterrey, Mexico.

THE TEAM MOVES out of town today and isn't going to play another game at the Polo Grounds until Tuesday when they tiff San Diego here.

Manager Bob Elliott's charges roar into El Centro tonight for a small brannigan with Seattle. It'll be the first night game for the Solons and Elliott is figuring on Noel Mickelsen and Joe Stanka for the mound duties.

ELLIOTT WILL ALSO enter step three of his preparatory work on his hurling staff tonight. The pitchers started by throwing three innings, then shifted into five and four inning splits on the nine inning games.

Tonight, Mickelsen will throw for seven innings with Stanka closing things up. Pint-sized Chico Heron banged away at Mountie pitching here yesterday, getting four for five including two doubles and drove in three of the Solon runs — including the tying and winning markers.

AL HEIST GOT three for four and Don Frailey belted out two hits in four at bats for the Sacramento cause.

Bill Dailey and Bob Garber split the runs (two each) and the hits (three apiece) but Dailey went five frames and Garber only four. Line score:

Vancouver	020	002	000-4 6 5
Sacramento	011	001	025-5 12 2

Hallen, Symon and Patten: Dailey, Garber, Hughes and Delyrimple, Rossell.

AUGUSTA, Ga. — (UPI) — Ken Venturi and Art Wall were the betting favorites and Sam Snead, as usual, the gallery favorite as the field of 76 professionals and 14 amateurs took their final tune-ups today for the 23rd Masters golf tournament, starting Thursday.

Venturi, because most of the pros think he has the best game "from the tee into the cup," was the 3-1 betting choice with Wall, the leading money winner on the PGA circuit this year, the second choice at 4-1.

The 46-year-old Snead and the 48-year-old Jimmy Demaret, only golfers to win the Masters three times, were quoted at 5-1 along with Cary Middlecoff. Arnold Palmer, last year's winner, was listed at 6-1.

Venturi is only 27. He's won a lot of tournaments but none of the big ones like the Masters.

Wall is 35. He is the most consistent player of the year and he has everything it takes to win. A lot of players like him because of the added experience he has over Venturi.

There was little said about the chances of the 46-year-old Ben Hogan. Hogan is now limiting his competitive golf to four tournaments a year, and his fellow pros don't feel he has it on the greens any more.

MILWAUKEE — (UPI) — The National Boxing Assn. today hinted at a possible title match between Carmen Basilio and Gene Fullmer if middleweight king Ray Robinson abdicates or has his championship taken away for inactivity.

Basilio and Fullmer, both former middleweight rulers, were No. 1 and No. 2 in the April ratings of the NBA released today by ratings chairman Fred Saddy. "We're sick and tired of Robinson's promises of a title defense," said Saddy. "He hasn't done anything since winning back the title from Basilio a year ago."

"If Robinson were to abdicate the middleweight crown or his recognition impaired his principal runners-up would be under top consideration in future plays," said Saddy, indicating a possible title fight between Basilio and Fullmer.

If Robinson does agree to a defense, Saddy said, Basilio "holds first claim."

Davey Moore, the newly crowned featherweight champion, won recognition as "Boxer of the Month."

GIANTS SIGN ROOKIE

NEW YORK — (UPI) — The New York Giants have signed rookie end Joe Biscacha from the University of Richmond to a 1959 contract. Biscacha was the Giants' 27th draft choice.

Fullmer and Clark Open Camp at Blue Skies Park

Prep for Bout on Saturday

Blue Skies Trailer Village clubhouse was echoing today with the sound of thumping punching bags, feet dancing through skipping ropes and athletes shadow-boxing as Jay and Don Fullmer light and middle weights were training for their ten-rounders and Lamar Clark went through training routine for next Saturday night's fist-cuff program at the Rodeo Field of the Polo Grounds.

Jay and Don Fullmer, light and middle weights were training for their ten-rounders and Lamar Clark, heavyweight, was really thumping the bag.

THE FULLMERS and Clark arrived from Utah Sunday night and after a day of rest after the trip to Blue Skies, set up training camp yesterday under the watchful eyes of Marv Jensen, manager.

Gene Fullmer, former middle-weight champion, was due to arrive today.

Jay Fullmer will meet Cisco Andrade in the main event Saturday night while Don meets Orlando Prieto in a middle-weight bout on the same card.

JENSEN was awaiting word from the state boxing commission for an okay on an opponent for Clark, heavyweight from Cedar City, Utah, who has won 39 professional fights, 38 of them via the kayo route.

Don Fullmer has a record of 18 wins in 18 bouts while Jay has a mark of 19 wins, two losses and one draw.

Jay's opponent, Cisco Andrade, has won 39 of his 44 pro fights. Andrade has set up his training at Hemet.

THE PROGRAM, first major fight card in the Village, will be staged at the Rodeo Field of the Polo Grounds Saturday night starting at 8 o'clock.

Besides the Jay Fullmer-Cisco Andrade bout, the Don Fullmer-Orlando Prieto battle and the Clark fight, all ten-rounders, two four-round prelims are on the program.

The card is part of the 23rd annual Desert Circus program. Tickets, scaled from $2.50 general admission, to $15 ringside, are on sale at booths on Palm Canyon Drive, at the Desert Inn, and at Los Angeles agencies.

NAMED TRACK ASSISTANT NEW YORK — (UPI) — Minnesota track coach Jim Kelly has been named to assist Frank Potts in coaching a U.S. squad that will meet Russia in Philadelphia, July 18-19.

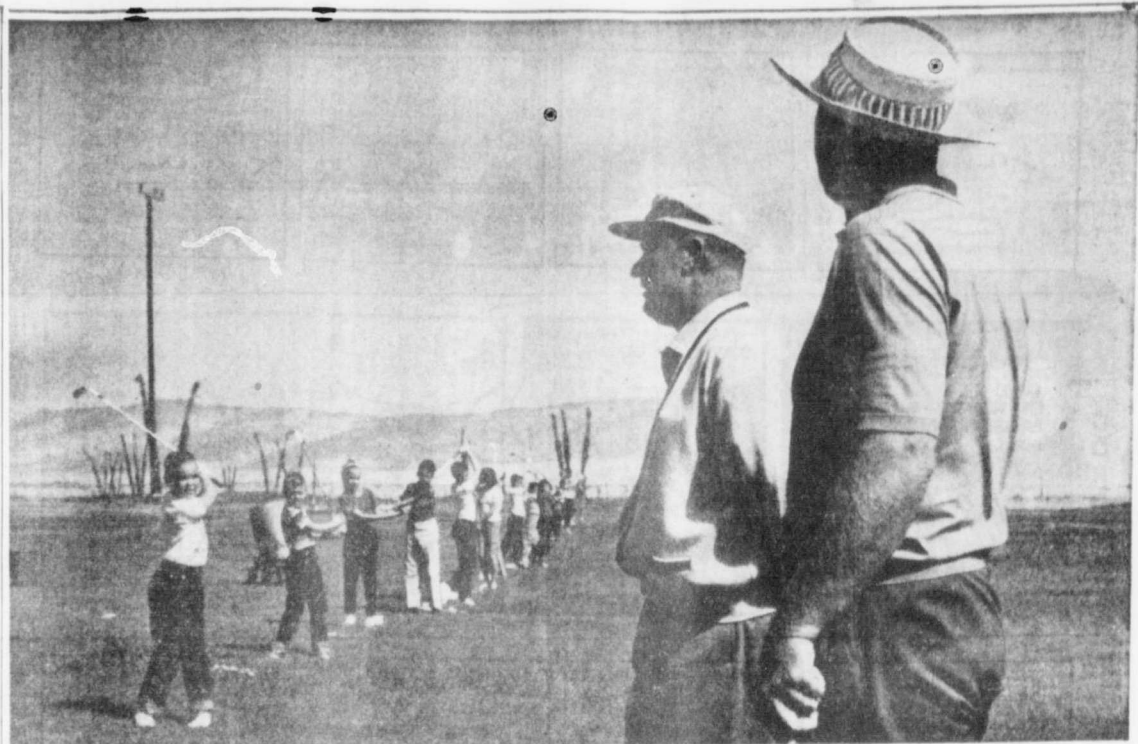

MIXED DOUBLES LEAGUE Dill Lumber Company bowlers rolled the high team series, 1845 in this week's games in the Mixed Doubles League, while Hoams Pools, had high team game, 677.

Betty Ostad's 460 series was high for the women and Fred Goetz topped the men with 516. Vi Hubbs rolled the high women's game, 177, and Goetz led the men with 210.

Tigers Lead in Volleyball Loop

Tigers held their lead in the City Volleyball lead although idle this week. In games played, Prieto's All Stars won over the Regals twice, 15-10, and 15-8, while Hayes Stars split with Aldo's Barber Shop, 15-6 and 10-15.

Standings today: Tigers, 11-3; Prieto, 10-4; Hayes, 8-6; Regals, 5-9; Aldo's, 3-13.

CHIEF OF POLICE A. G. KETTMANN and Dale Andreason look over youngsters attending the weekly golf lessons taught by Andreason at the Palm Springs Golf Club.

Golf Classes Making Excellent Progress

"That's the kind of a line-up I like to see," said Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann last Saturday as he watched Palm Springs area youngsters perform in their weekly classes under instruction of Dale Andreason, course pro.

The fifth lesson for the Sweet Swingers, as Andreason terms his classes, was given over to instructions on pushing the club back with the left hand and keeping the right elbow in close to the body and staying within themselves on the down swing.

That makes for smooth action, he said.

"The junior golfers are making real progress," Andreason said, "and to me as a teacher, it is really satisfying. I am sure these kids are going to make Palm Springs proud of them."

The classes on Saturdays for the youngsters at the Palm Springs Golf club are held from 10 to 11 a.m. for those in the 8 to 12 age bracket and from 11 until noon for students from 13 to 18 years of age.

Eldorado to Host Sunburst Event This Weekend

Eldorado Country Club's annual Sunburst tournament is scheduled for this weekend with three days of play.

Friday will be given over to a Scotch Foursome event.

The 36-hole Sunburst flight gets under way Saturday and winds up Sunday with 75 teams competing in best ball twosome play.

Desert Circus Week Opens With Salute to Colorful Colorado

Palm Springs "salutes" colorful Colorado! With this guiding theme the community's long established Annual Desert Circus Week opens auspiciously today for what promises to be one of the most interesting and popular events in many years.

Second of the States to be chosen for this signal honor, Coloradans have arrived in force with every determination and extensive preparations to outdo, if possible, the hearty enthusiasm which marked last year's invasion by participants in the "salute" to the great State of Texas.

Colorado has a number of outstanding claims to fame which offer opportunities for highlighting the celebration in its honor here and when featured and extolled as the theme of the huge Desert Circus Parade Saturday guarantees that event as one of the most varied and entertaining attractions.

Situated atop the Continental Divide, Colorado is one of the "highest" States in the Union, a land of sharp scenic contrasts and natural beauty. Historically, it is noted for its rich mines, timber, cattle, agriculture, abundance of wildlife providing excellent hunting and fishing, and the indomitable spirit, loyalty and pride of its citizens.

It has been the "home" State of many illustrious Americans noted for signal achievements in the fields of politics, science, arts and the various branches of commercial enterprise.

In proportion to its size and population, Colorado has distinguished itself with high honors for the number and importance of its contributions towards the pleasure and progress of the entire United States.

The people of Palm Springs and its residents and visitors from all parts of State and Nation are both proud and happy to share in honoring and paying tribute to Colorful Colorado as the State selected for this year's "salute" during Desert Circus Week.

Welcome Coloradans. Have a grand and glorious time in our celebrated Capital of Sun and Fun.

Mutiny on the Bounty

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman Ken Hechler, who represents 10 West Virginia counties in the Ohio River Valley, was preaching mutiny on the Bounty. He was telling the House Agriculture committee that the free food for needy families in his District was not enough and not what the needy people were demanding.

Congressman Hechler, born on Long Island and brought up in Missouri, is a strapping New Dealer who recently came to West Virginia and won this seat last year in the Democratic landslide. Now he was laying into the Republican Secretary of Agriculture with charges of ignorant indifference to human suffering ("Let 'em eat shrimp cocktails!") and was tagging the Republican Administration with spending billions on Defense and peanuts for "tribulation."

REP. HECHLER had it all going his way until some of the senior Democrats pointed out that he was flouting the wrong culprit. It turned out that the bottleneck was not at the Agriculture Department, but down at the West Virginia localities where the food hadn't been requested or hadn't been distributed for lack of funds, organization or manpower. This seems to be true in other States.

You can see what comes next. The Secretary of Agriculture has almost limitless emergency power to declare that a surplus exists in anything which Americans eat, chew, smoke or wear. He, then, can make this surplus product available to "needy" families. Secretary Benson has done this in record amounts of food and dollars to a record number of Americans who are responding in record volume of complaints about the quantity, quality and variety.

NEXT, WELL, the trend of legislation in the 86th Congress is to vest more and more authority in Federalism. Specifically, it may not be long before the Agriculture Secretary not only assigns food to the needy, but fetches it to the door. And pretty soon, as Congress broadens the definition of "needy," we can expect to find huge areas in the United States where people will learn to sing for their supper while obliging bureaucracies serve it up.

If this seems alien to the American tradition, the reason may be that our legislators are turning to non-American models for social betterment.

In a major speech in support of his own Area Redevelopment bill, which was recently passed by the Senate 49-46, Senator Paul Douglas told a Friday afternoon Senate audience (about six or eight Senators were in there) that the nearly $400 million measure for rebuilding rural-urban slums "would not result in a radical new program which has never been tried."

WAS MR. DOUGLAS saying that Federal factory-building was an old American usage? Oh, not "the countries of Western Europe," he went on, "have had similar programs . . . the financing . . . made possible by U.S. foreign aid dollars."

Well, I thought I'd heard everything but now! The Douglas line of reasoning is that the American communities are comparable to the foreign lands which were laid waste by war and then threatened by Communist overthrow.

GREAT BRITAIN actually turned to the half-way house of national socialism and Senator Douglas cited, with seeming approval, the British Distribution of Industry Act, passed in 1945 and extended last year. Under this British law, "any community having a high rate of unemployment which is likely to persist" would get "preferential treatment" by the government. This legislation which flies in the face of Nature by promoting the preservation of unfit communities.

The only foreseeable result would be to perpetuate the obsolete sites where industry and agriculture have failed, and to prevent the natural birth of new cities, and farm communities where the future wealth must be created, if at all.

THUS CONGRESSMAN Hechler and Senator Douglas are double-teaming, the former to pin down the population of our migratory race with drive-in restaurant service from the Federal granaries, the latter to invest in the poor towns and to make it the business of Congress to prevent (although it won't work) the founding of new Detroit and future Pittsburgh.

There is no denying that the industrial revolution has brought privation and hard luck to many Congressional Districts and States. But this is a modern problem, even futuristic. It won't be solved by imitating the Pharaohs and building pyramids with gang labor in the unproductive desert sands.—Holmes Alexander.

NEW RECORD

'Why Fight the Feeling' Is Roy's Quiz

Why Fight the Feeling. Roy Hamilton with Neal Hefti. Epic Records, $2.95.

If Roy Hamilton could have fought the way he sings, the chances are extremely good that the lithe, handsome Negro singer might be middleweight champion by now. As it stands, the record-buying, club-going public have profited mightily by virtue of Hamilton's decision to swing vocally instead of physically.

It's not his first LP for the Epic folks, but it is his best. Backed again by Neal Hefti, Roy handles a group of tunes that have one thing in common — they're all great, even the new arrivals.

SANDWICHED between such perennial favorites as Cole Porter's "Let's Do It," Johnny Mercer's "Somebody Gotta Give," Rodgers and Hart's "I Could Write a Book," are such new tunes as Steve Allen's collaboration with Neal Hefti, "Kiss Me First," and W. T. Ford's "I'll Live True to You." This method of introducing new songs — in company with melodies that have already achieved distinguished status — is a new departure to this reviewer.

What Hamilton does with this assortment of songs is what makes the album particularly worthwhile. In an era that sees new recording production records set on an almost-weekly basis, routinized becomes a rule and similarity, particularly in records by popular singers, becomes unbearable. There is nothing routine about either Hamilton or his singing.

'That Used to Be My Act'

This Side of The Sun By Phat

The first of April, some do say
Is set apart for All Fool's Day
But why the people call it so
Nor I nor they themselves do know.

Tried to find out by diligent research why today, April 1, is set aside for silly nonsense and foolish pranks.

But nobody seemed to know except that the world needs a bit of foolery on at least one day out of the 365.

HISTORIC origins of the day are obscure and perhaps a reasonable explanation of the day is that printed above.

It was written away back in 1760.

And I unashamedly lift it bodily from Poor Robin's Almanac of that day.

IN THE OLD DAYS, as far back as 1928, when these things started on the front page of another newspaper then and later in The Sun April 1 always provided a day of rest as a Friday, the 13th does now.

All I had to do was to draw upon my imagination, start off hating at some sensational development and just before the denouement, hit the bottom of the page and stick in that "jump" line: SEE PHAT ON PAGE SO-AND-SO.

AND WHEN YOU turned there to get the heart of the dirt, there was that line: APRIL FOOL.

It was a dirty trick but it saved much wear and tear on the brainy typewriter and copy paper.

Charley Ryan has an idea whereby I can save labor.

He suggests that I start out one of these essays with the statement that today I shall tell you all I know about women.

And then leave the rest of the column blank.

I've filed that idea away for the time when I shall need it.

COMES A SUGGESTION on how to reduce accidents at Arizona Bridge.

"Instead of that broken line and solid line indicating that you can pass going one way but not the other, why not a full double line?" asks my correspondent.

"And instead of signs indicating a lower speed limit which everybody ignores, why not a sign: NO PASSING?"

I IS DIFFICULT, he continued, to sometimes spot a speed violation, but it would be easy to detect anyone passing in a no passing zone.

He is right but so many people do not know what a double line means. The law says you can't cross a double line — but that is a law splintered a hundred times a day right here in town alone.

It's fractured more times even than the CVC section regulating horn blowing.

SADDEST STORY I know concerns this day.

A wise guy scornfully stepped over a fat walrus on the sidewalk.

"Can't fool me," he said. "I wasn't born yesterday."

And the simple dolt behind him picked it up and pocketed it.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

I suppose this is the day I must bite dutifully on the rubber candy. Crying to my delighted offspring: "April Fool! Why, you rascal!"

You have to help small children along with such projects. I don't know how many snakes I jumped and looked out for when my daughter was growing up.

SUCH THINGS DO not make you younger. They do not grow hair on your head. I can tell you that. Fathers are called on for many things. Being an April Fool is just one of them.

The trick is never let them get wise how foolish the other 364 days are.

WELL, SPEAKING of maintaining appearances: You can now buy hair-pieces from Sears Roebuck by mail.

(Same company I used to buy parts for my Model-T Ford from.)

Sears Roebuck are right on their toes. Up-to-date.

You get a catalog from Sears Roebuck and they send you a tape measure with it. Also a paper pattern and an envelope.

SO YOU MEASURE your noggin. And you do a pattern over it—in case your head is a little pointed, they want to know it.

Then, if you have any hair left, you clip off a little sample and put it in the envelope. You mail all this back to Sears and, by golly, they ship you a wig.

Costs you $109.95. I have thought and thought about this price. I cannot guess what the 95 cents is for.

The Sears people estimate there are 15,000,000 bald men in the U. S.

Most of them got that way by letting their children harass them on April 1. That is my opinion.

HERE IS A dispatch about Gary Sanders, 16. Living in Portland, Ore. He and his older brother and his pop grew beards—Oregon is having its centennial celebration this year and it is well known the pioneers wore beards.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

By LICHTY

" . . . And proper office practice requires you to have finished your nails, repeated gossip that can't wait, and have the covers off your typewriters before your first coffee break!"

EARL WILSON:

Little Fooling Around Foolishly

NEW YORK — April Fool's here again, and there's bad news for all you cut-ups and pranksters. Americans have turned serious.

They aren't fooling around or April-fooling around this year.

Rather than use their brains to create urgently-needed and vitally important things like April Fool stunts, our better minds are laboring on H-bombs, cancer cures, road maps to the moon—and the invention of new taxes . . . Or maybe ways to pay the old taxes.

We have just toured Broadway's razz-ma-taz playlands and game palaces with a 50 cent bag of popcorn (formerly 10 cents) in our hot buttered hands.

The most sensational new gadget for April Fool day is the "bald wig" — not to be confused with the "Yul Brynner wig" — and the "dazzle eyes" (rapidly changing colors) which Steve Allen has worn on TV.

"The bald wig" is . . . well, it's a bald wig.

It's a positively hairless, extremely shiny, skin-tight bald spot that fits over your head. You look bald all the way to your neck when, suddenly, out shoots a luxurious, taffy-colored mop of Harpo Marx-type hair. The "Yul Brynner wig"—well, it lacks the wig.

Wear home a bald wig and the "dazzle eyes" on April Fool's day. Mr. Husband, and your bride'll say you're drunk and your kids'll say you're corny.

We purchased this bundle of escapism — for two and a half bucks — at Ed Goldstein's novelty nursery on Broadway "twixt 43rd and 46th Sts., which hugs Leew's State theater where Marilyn Monroe's "Some Like It Hot" just opened.

"Do you have any 'sick jokes'?" we asked Mr. Goldstein fearfully — referring to the morbidity-type gags of Hollywood origin.

"Do you mean the coffin bit?" he asked.

A genius to whom death is just a barrel of laughs has invented a miniature coffin which, when opened, reveals a supposed corpse. Just great for sending to the boss with a note saying, "And hope you are the same. With love, from Joe."

"I didn't stock it because it didn't amuse me, but down the street there you can get it," the man said.

"We've got some nice shrunk-on heads," he added. "They came out before Christmas and they're all right. It's according to what you send with it. Something like 'I lost my head over you' is O.K."

Love and sex figure prominently in the 1959 novelties.

Hunters' trophies once were deer antlers. Now the deer is spelled "deer" and the deer is Jayne Mansfield and the trophy is Jayne's shoulders instead of her antlers.

Jackie Gleason, Milton Berle, Jan Murray and such playful lads are capable, on April Fool's Day, of announcing a big party — and then locking up the house and getting out of town about the time the guests arrive.

But for the less imaginative, the more commonplace gadgets such as suction-cup faucets that fit on your forehead, dummy hypodermic needles, squirting doorbells, "third eyes" and the "auto burglar alarm" that sets off a harsh siren call for police when you turn on the ignition, will have to do.

The novelty merchants admit that after 50 years the "phony headline newspaper" is their best seller and that they hope to have something real good thought up by the time the Lions hold their convention in New York.

"Lions Lion Around Town Lion," is an early suggestion.

Americans may feel sad about the decline of the April Fool joke but a Parisian on the Broadway scene, the Marquis Guy de la Passardiere, husband of French chanteuse Lilo, is elated.

In France, where the April Fool idea originated — they call it "poisson d'avril" and it means "fish of April"—there's been no letup.

"A fellow invites you to lunch and never shows up," says the Marquis. "Next day he says 'Poisson d'Avril,' and laughs raucously. Or when you are in a group, somebody gets behind you and pins a fish, maybe a real fish, maybe one cut out of paper on your back. You walk down the Champs Elysees with everybody but you seeing it. It is very funny—do everybody else."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Tony Pettito overheard this: "What makes you think you could be a great actor?" . . . "Some of the actors I see on television."

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Bing and Kathy Expecting

HOLLYWOOD — Otto Preminger is pushing the full-speed-ahead button on "Anatomy of a Murder" so that Kathy Grant Crosby can finish her role as the illegitimate daughter — BUT FAST — because Kathy and Bing are expecting another little Crosby in the early fall.

Betimes, the stork is flapping his wings very close to Sheree North and her husband, Dr. Gerhart Donner. And that's why Sheree has had to bow out in "A Private's Affair." Christine Carere came in, in Sheree's place — also Sal Mineo, in another co-starring spot.

EVERYBODY sympathized with German starlet Sabina Berman when she lost her leading-lady role in "Spartacus" to Jean Simmons, including Sir Laurence Olivier, one of the stars of the same movie. He said, "All of us experience that sort of disappointing setback in our careers at one time or another. Remember my own dismissal from 'Queen Christina,' when John Gilbert replaced me as Greta Garbo's leading man?"

All very comforting, of course — except that Miss Berman has just flunked her second Hollywood chance by conking out on her screen test as Dirk Bogarde's leading in Columbia's life of Franz Liszt, "The Magic Flame."

Jimmie Komaek came back from the shadow of Chicago's steel mills with an announcement that he found a new discovery there, the Windy City's answer to Fox's Tuesday Weld — a beauty named Wednesday Rivel!

KIM NOVAK plained back to Hollywood in the middle of the night from her "Middle of the Night" locationing in New York with 20 pieces of lavender luggage and her lavender-eyed cat, Prewackett . . . Speaking of traveling Fox is tickling Dorothy Malone for a ride in young producer Dick "Compulsion" Zanuck's next picture, "Deluxe Tour."

That, incidentally, is the script I've been threatening to write for years, ever since I put myself through the University of Illinois with the dough I earned conducting tours during summer vacations!

The Dunes in Las Vegas found a replacement for the late Lou Costello, whose estate is ill despite the announcement of the survivors who will share it, Jack Carson takes over Lou's spot, starting July 1.

RONA JAFFE's acting assignment in the movie version of her novel, "The Best of Everything," is described thusly on the studio call-sheet: "Virginal-type spinster."

Chapter Eight of "My Brother Was an Only Child" by Jack Douglas, writer on the Jack Paar show, boasts this unwieldy title: "Young Lady with Short Right Leg Would Like to Meet Young Man with Short Left Leg. Object—Out-of-this-World Mambo!"

CHANNEL CHATTER — Desilu will beam its film about Al Capone, "The Untouchables," in two parts, same as the cliff-hanging "For Whom the Bell Tolls." Following which the producers will beat Allied Artists' "Al Capone" to the draw by splicing both parts together and releasing it in Europe as a full-length theatrical feature! . . . Reminds me: Next writing assignment for "Al Capone" scripter Mal Wald is a screenplay based on the life of the great English poet, Thomas Hood.

Musical Chairs: Frank Sinatra, slinging a new LP of strictly blues at Capitol, assisted to conductor Gordon Jenkins. "This hunk of shellac is gonna be so sad and suicidal they'll be handing us the Band-Aid concession at Lover's Leap Bridge in Pasadena!"

VIC DAMONE started a new sideline — a pizza-parlor in Fresno. It just Freshened.

Private joke among the Perry Mason scripters: "Hamilton Burger," their bungling District Attorney, is "Hamburger" the hard way.

Actress Nancy Asch signed in for a part in a Trackdown episode in which she'll be murdered by the star of the show, Bob Guo — her husband.

The tiny tot to whom Maurice Chevalier will sing "Thank Heaven for Little Girls" on next Monday's (April 6) Oscarcast — while she's surrounded by MUCH bigger girls — will be 17-year-old Sandra Dee . . . Roger Smith of the 77 Sunset Strip series, who started his show-biz career as a singer but never got a chance to prove it on that show, will help belt one of the Oscar-bid ballads.

ROGER'S STRIP sidekick, Ed Byrnes, who's always running that comb through his hair on the telebeams, has just waxed a new song with Connie Stevens for the Warner Bros. label. Title: "Kookie, Kookie, Lend Me Your Comb."

Dinah Shore's note to this reporter: "PLEASE stop asking me to sing 'Hello, Young Lovers' and 'Too Late Now' on my Chevy show! Every time I sing those songs I cry and we want to keep it a happy show!" Aw c'mon, Dinah, cry a little.

CALIFORNIA'S GREATEST outdoor spectacle, the Ramona play, will find Maurice Jara as the Indian hero, Alessandro, for his eighth consecutive season, and Raquel Tejada, 18-year-old La Jolla beauty, as Ramona. The colorful dramatic spectacle of early California will be staged in the Ramona Bowl, Hemet, Saturday and Sunday afternoons, April 18-19, 25-26, and May 2-3. More than 650,000 persons have seen this spectacle in the past 31 years.

Gem, Mineral Show to Be Held At Orange Show

Plans for a new Gem and Mineral Show are shaping up to make the event one of the major exhibit attractions at the 1959 National Orange Show, April 23 through May 3, in San Bernardino.

Space for more than 300 cases to display the array of gems and minerals is being arranged in the exposition's huge Swing Auditorium.

HUNDREDS OF gem and mineral specimens, a large fluorescent display, lapidary experts actually at work and many rare, unusual and valuable specimens, along with a big display of Indian artifacts, will be included in the show. A few of the special features will be a large display of petrified wood, an exhibition of 20 massive quartz crystals and the display of nearly 400 polished stone spheres—all owned by individual collectors. Omar Kerschner of Indio will exhibit his quartz crystal, one of the largest in the nation.

SPONSORED BY the Orange Belt Mineralogical Society, N. L. Boltz of Monrovia is heading up the committee in charge. Anyone may exhibit in the gem and mineral show. Entry forms may be secured by writing: National Orange Show, P. O. Box 29, San Bernardino. Entry deadline is April 16.

Top Twirlers Of Nation Set For Hi-Desert

TWENTYNINE PALMS — Baton twirlers from across the nation — including Junior National Champion Christine Marshall — will converge on Twentynine Palms on April 11 for the first annual Hi-Desert Twirling competition which will be held.

Little Miss Marshall, who won her title only in February at the St. Paul Winter Carnival in Minnesota, headlines a growing list of entrants in the competition.

Sponsored by the Twentynine Palms Chamber of Commerce, the contest will be held in Municipal Park here and is sanctioned by the National Baton Twirling Association. Judges will be provided by the NBT.

Solo twirling, interpretive and military duets, twin batons and strutting will be conducted in the competition which gets underway at 9 a.m.

Dates Set for Sheriff's Rodeo

Sixth annual Sheriff's Rodeo will be held May 16 and 17 at Riverside's De Anza Park, with final plans now being completed, according to Sheriff Joe Rice.

The rodeo is sponsored by the Sheriff's Rodeo Association as an annual event, with all proceeds used to improve the rodeo or given to organizations for use in charitable work.

The rodeo will be presented at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, and 2:30 p.m., Sunday.

Open Golf Champs NEW YORK (UPI) — Willie Anderson, Bob Jones and Ben Hogan are the only players ever to win the U.S. Open Golf Championship four times. Hogan holds the all-time lowest winning score for 72 holes — 276.

Nine Students Enter Third Science Exhibit

Space has captured the imagination of most of the nine Palm Springs High School students whose exhibits will be on view at the Third Annual Inland Science Fair which is scheduled to run from Friday through Monday at Riverside Municipal Auditorium.

Four of the nine entries prepared here deal with man's ventures into outer space in one form or another.

TODD GILMORE, JR., has an exhibit titled "Liquid Propellant Rocket Thrust Chamber Design." Michael Humiston has completed a study of an "anti-Missile Missile." Jim Marx let his imagination wander to analyze "The Coming Space Station" and Gary Yaruss will exhibit Radiation Penetration Apparatus.

Other entries by Village students include:

Dick Cavagnero, "Electroplating;" Robert A. Drummond, "Dietary Deficiency;" Yvonne Fleming, "Steer Manure's Diseases;" Roy Pascal, "Electric Film Developer;" and Arlene Taylor, "Bacterio - Radio Autographs."

THE STUDENTS were "coached" for their exhibits by Ralph L. Watt, Ron K. Pidot and Mr. Kellogg.

Judging of the more than 600

Book publishers in the United States issued a total of 13,462 new titles during 1958, a gain of 320 over 1957. In England, there were 22,143 new titles, an increase of 1,424.

entries will be done prior to a Science Fair Luncheon to be held Thursday at the National Orange Show in San Bernardino. Announcement of winners will be made at that time. Sweepstakes winners in the senior division will be sent to the National Science Fair at Hartford, Conn.

TWO GOVERNORS will be honored at a cocktail party to be hosted by the Herman H. Ridders at their Santa Rosa Place home Thursday evening, when they will entertain the contingent of prominent Coloradans, headed by Governor and Mrs. Steve McNichols, and Governor Pat Brown and his wife, who are coming for Desert Circus Week. Restore Whiteness

To restore whiteness to a Dacron blouse or shirt:

First dissolve one cup of electrical dishwashing compound in one gallon of warm water in an enameled pan or pail. Stir the solution until it dissolves, taking care not to get any in your eyes or on your skin.

Then dip the garment in the solution until it is completely covered, and let it soak overnight. The next morning let water from the faucet run into the container for about 10 minutes for an overflow rinse. Rub the soiled areas briskly with a soft brush or sponge. Wash the garment thoroughly.

Saturday Luncheon Crowd Views Fashions in Oasis Diningroom

Saturday lunching in the Golden terrace diningroom of the Oasis Hotel is proving a popular rendezvous for fashion minded Villagers and guests in the area. Each Saturday, J. W. Robinson is presenting the fashion showing of the latest in resort wear, modeled by smart John Robert Power's girls. Zaddie Bunker was at a terrace table to view the latest in Palm Springs and resort clothes. She was accompanied by son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sirebe, and the threesome just had attended the hanging of the plaque to honor Palm Springs' flying great-grandmother, Zaddie Bunker, who soon will fly in an Air Force Jet to break the sound barrier.

It was a table of all Tacoma ladies that Mrs. George Kachlein entertained on Saturday. With her were two new arrivals at the Oasis, Mrs. Harold Allen and Mrs. Fred Shanahan, who joined her mother, Mrs. Frank Jeffries. Also at the luncheon were, Mrs. Fred Karlen, who came up from Thunderbird; and Mrs. Lester Hansen, who is staying at the Tennis Club. Mrs. Kachlein has been at the Oasis since early January and will remain until mid-April.

Also entertaining a visitor at luncheon and for the Easter holiday is Mrs. Ward Magill, who met her grandson, Chuck Lawrence, of Wichita, in Los Angeles and toured Disneyland, Marinerland, and all the sights of the city area before coming back to Palm Springs to enjoy swimming and fun at the Oasis. Young Chuck will return to his high school work this week.

Mrs. William Hewitt, of Tacoma and a long time winter visitor at the Oasis, has enjoyed a visit from her daughter, Mrs. John K. Selden, of Minneapolis. Also traveling south to see his mother and for his first look at Palm Springs was William Hewitt, Jr., of Tacoma.

Joining the many giving private cocktail parties during their Oasis stay were Mr. and Mrs. James A. Arnold, of Alhambra, who entertained a group of nearly 40 in the hotel's card room before the Saturday night dinner hour.

EASTER BRUNCH AT EL MIRADOR was the last one until next fall and unusually gay. In the crowd of close to 500 persons was this party which includes, around table from left, Mrs. Ulysses S. El Mirador's Easter Sunday Brunch Last Until Next Fall Climax of the week of special activities at El Mirador Hotel was the Sunday Brunch, the last one of this season, attended by a capacity crowd of nearly 500.

El Mirador and Garden rooms were gaily decorated with giant Easter eggs in delicate pastel shades, clusters of balloons, pinatas in all shapes and forms, and Easter Bunnies, chicks and ducks made the walls of the two rooms a gay Easter parade. The theme was further carried out by social director Maria Brown the tables, where centerpieces created by social director Maria Brown were little grass nests with dainty pastel pink bunnies carrying tiny baskets of flowers, and surrounded by jelly beans and sugar eggs.

The buffet table was presided upon by a giant Lady Bunny, in Easter finery, and at her feet were miniature chocolate bunnies, dainty marmalade eggs with tiny candy decorations, and luscious egg-shaped cakes and pastries especially prepared by Executive Chef Gerhard Knaak.

Among those present: Ernie and Bernice Young at a table hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Schiff, and which included Mr. and Mrs. Burnham Birelow, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph A. Christie were hosts to a table in honor of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lyon (Mr. Lyon is the famous patent attorney), and which included Mr. and Mrs. John Lucareni, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Malouf.

A party of six which drove in from Los Angeles for the brunch was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Austin Fox, and included Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant IV, and Mr. and Mrs. Perrin C. Miller—all prominent members of the Balboa Bay Club, and well known figures in Los Angeles society.

With the Gerry Mitchells was her sister Mrs. Lyle Prince of San Bernardino, who was an Easter houseguest of the Mitchells at their Park Drive home.

Others at the brunch were General and Mrs. Victor Bertrandias, Marjorie Rambeau, Dan Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. F. Wuest, Mrs. Leon Brown (wife of the well known Washington (D.C.) architect) and many, many more.

Tex Kidwell M.C.'d the show, which featured special Easter entertainment presented by the talented young dancer Frances Romero, songs by Wynne and Alex Hammond and a very moving rendition of the Lord's Prayer by Edward Lyman.

Smiths Hosts At Buffet

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith entertained around 75 at cocktails and buffet Tuesday evening at their home on Vereda Sur.

The Smiths, who are regular winter residents, plan to leave this month for their home in Kansas City, Missouri.

Tea Honors Senior Girls

It was an interesting change of pace Saturday afternoon at the Pannhellenic tea for the Senior girls of Coachella Valley, Palm Springs, and Palm Valley high schools.

It is more usual to see girls in gay active sports garb than the more formal tea attire. However, it was an attractive, poised group of young ladies who moved down the receiving line. The mothers also attending the tea could be understood as proud of their daughters.

Mrs. Florence Larned's Las Palmas home was a suitable setting for such an affair with its beautiful French furnishings in the formal living room contrasting with the glassed lanai room, and the flagstoned loggia facing the pool. Easter bunnies stood guard at punch bowls in these areas, and in the tea house at the far end of the garden.

Colorful groups, gathered around the pool to discuss plans for college in the fall, made a lovely picture against the multi-colored raised rose garden in full bloom, the cascades of brilliant bougainvillea, and the bright yellow hibiscus.

"Be yourself" was emphasized in the informal talk by Melinda Hough, Palm Springs High School graduate, now attending the University of Arizona, where she is a pledge of Delta Delta Delta national social sorority. Melinda pointed out some of the advantages of sorority living: the fun of congenial group activities, help in establishing good study habits, and the friendship of girls in other sororities.

Pam Williams, a Junior at Stanford University, where there are no sororities, explained the way of life there. Dormitories and residence houses offer pleasant group living.

Both girls spoke of clothes needed for college, and agreed that most girls from the desert areas have a good basic wardrobe for colleges in the western states. Eastern climates, of course, present problems.

College preferences were varied with western schools predominating. Choices ranged from the University of Hawaii to the University of Mexico with a number choosing to remain in California to attend colleges and universities. Others have decided on schools in Arizona, Washington, and Idaho. It is safe to say the desert communities will be capably and charmingly represented at all places.

Newlyweds at Home in Tucson after Pre-Easter Wedding

Sarah Jane Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nicholas Peters of Granada Hills, and sister of Orlando Peters of Palm Springs, was married March 21, to Keith Robert Hicks of Tucson. The marriage took place in the St. John Baptist de LaSalle in Granada Hills, with Rev. Father Patrick Shelley officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Wearing traditional white, the bride's gown was princess style, fashioned of imported Chantilly lace over lustrous satin. A fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught up by a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a wedding bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Because of Lent, there were but two attendants and the absence of music and flowers preserved the solemnity of the pre-Easter season.

The bride was attended by her sister Jo Anne Mary Fusell, who wore mist green chiffon with white accessories, and carried pink and white sarrations. Best man was Richard Venturine, a school friend of the groom.

She attended Corvallis Girls High School on Laurel Canyon Blvd., and studied drama and speech under Harrison Lewis of Hollywood. The bridegroom is a graduate of Franklin High School in Highland Park, and attended L. A. City College.

Around 100 guests attended the wedding and the reception at the home of the bride's parents.

After a wedding trip to Carmel, the young couple are at home in Tucson where he is a Southern Pacific employee.

Take a "Two-Mile Try-Out"...discover Plymouth's...

BIG DIFFERENCE

BIG DIFFERENCE IN RIDE AND PERFORMANCE

No other low-price car can match Plymouth's Torsion-Aire Ride... yours at no extra cost. You enjoy superb handling ease with no roll or sway on turns, no front-end dive on stops. And you thrill to spirited V-8 power, including optional New Golden Commando 395, largest engine in the low-price field.

BIG DIFFERENCE IN ECONOMY

Plymouth won the Mobilgas Economy Run in the low-price class two years in a row. And only Plymouth offers a Fuel-Saver Choke and new 3-stage carburetor for maximum gas savings. What's more, all Plymouth standard V-8 and 6 engines perform at peak efficiency on regular gas. You save every mile you drive.

BUT...YOU DON'T PAY FOR THE DIFFERENCE

Ask any salesman to compare any Plymouth model with comparable models of the other two top-selling low-price cars. He'll prove all cars in Plymouth's field cost just about the same... but only Plymouth gives you the Big Difference for your money!

So much the same in price...so different on the road...

Lights Believed Cause of Many Night Accidents

Illegal use of automobile lights may be a greater factor in traffic accidents than the records show, believes Capt. Lloyd W. Watson, commander of the Indian area for the California Highway Patrol.

"I have long been of the opinion that eye fatigue and momentary blindness caused by the bright lights of other vehicles contribute to many accidents although they are not the principal cause," Watson said. "At the very best, illegally used lights cause irritations that must have some psychological effect upon the motorist."

Watson pointed out that the California vehicle code requires the use of the low beam on headlights both when meeting and when following behind another car. The low beam must be used when within 500 feet of an oncoming car and when within 200 feet of a vehicle which is being followed or about to be overtaken.

"It takes only the slightest kind of pressure on a switch-button to change the light beam from high to low," he declared. "This doesn't seem like too much to do to make night driving a little easier and a little safer for the other person."

EASTER PUPPET SHOW for Thunderbird Country Club youngsters was staged Sunday by Bob Baker Productions of Los Angeles to a capacity crowd that included enchanted parents along with the enchanted tykes. Some of the adults were busy snapping pictures of the puppet pageant, for preservation in the family album. Puppet show is an annual Easter feature of Thunderbird. (Sun Photo).

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: I am engaged to a wonderful girl but she doesn't like my dog. She says it's either me or the dog. I have had "PAL" since he was six weeks old and that was eight years ago. I've only known my fiancée for ten months. PAL is a Chesapeake retriever, weighs 95 pounds and stands five feet on his hind legs. He has a dark brown coat with white markings on his throat and paws. Do you think any woman is worth giving up my dog for?

UNDECIDED

DEAR UNDECIDED: What does your fiancée look like

DEAR ABBY: I belong to a Club and most of the members have known each other a long time. We all put our wraps in the hostess' bedroom. We usually leave our purses there, too, but there is one woman who never lets go of her purse. She won't even go to the washroom without it. I don't know what she's got in there but I am sure it isn't anything more valuable than what the rest of us carry. When she came to my house

I asked her to please leave her purse in the bedroom but she refused to do it. I said, "There are no thieves here." You are insulting my guests." A big argument followed. Some of the women said I was wrong and some said she was wrong. What do you say?

HOSTESS

DEAR HOSTESS: You were wrong. If a guest wants to carry her purse with her, it's her privilege and she shouldn't be made the object of ridicule — especially by the hostess.

DEAR ABBY: Please don't think I'm conceited but I do have rather nice hair. It's reddish gold and everywhere I go I get compliments on it. I can see the heads turn (especially the men) when I walk down the street. It hangs to my shoulders in deep waves. My husband (before we were married 4 months ago) used to love my hair this way. As soon as we got married he asked me to cut it off. He wants me to get a boy cut! I thought he was kidding. He nags me every day about it. I like it this way, Abby, and I know he liked it, too. What made him change so suddenly? Should I cut it even if I don't want to?

GOLDIE

DEAR GOLDIE: Your husband is jealous. You attract too much attention and he isn't sure he can hold you. Forget what's ON your head and start using what's IN it. Build his confidence and assure him that you want him and only him. And ignore the wolves, Goldilocks.

DEAR ABBY: I am a married man who took up with a good-looking girl in a bar. It developed into an affair and she dragged me down morally, financially and spiritually. My wife took me back on account of the children but I know her respect for me has been destroyed. Beware, men, of that nice little gal you meet in a bar. If she were nice she wouldn't be there.

L. A. PHILHARMONIC TO GIVE CONCERT HERE ON SUNDAY

The Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, celebrating its fortieth birthday this year, will play concert No. 3.122 when it takes to the stage at Palm Springs High School Auditorium at 8:30 p.m., Sunday.

For the orchestra, which started its rise to international acclaim when it acquired Eduard Van Beinum as conductor in 1957, it represents another new step with the latest of a string of replacement directors.

FOR THE VILLAGE and its music-minded citizenry, the concert will represent an opportunity to hear the huge orchestral organization under the baton of a celebrated new conductor.

The orchestra will be directed by Arturo Basile, who took over the conducting reins from Erich Leinsdorf when that acknowledged master left the post.

An almost-storied past has piled up behind the Los Angeles musical aggregation, no more storied than the artists it contains.

INCLUDED WITHIN the orchestra are scores of ranking musicians, some of them rated among the best in the world on their instruments.

There is David Frisina, concert master for the huge orchestra, whose violin has sometimes been given better reviews than the orchestra; bassoonist Kalman Bloch, whose own compositions have received consideration by orchestras other than this one; hornist Sinclair Lott, who came out at least a partial victor in a battle with Local 47 of the mighty musician's union; string bassist Richard F. Kelley, whose knowledge of his instrument has made him the unquestioned master of Southland bass players and many others.

Some members of the orchestra are even more highly-regarded for their work off the Philharmonic's stage — but they continue to play in the huge orchestra and therein lies at least one reason for its acknowledged greatness.

SEVERAL LONG TIME barriers in the field of orchestral music were dropped as a result of actions by the Los Angeles Philharmonic and a scattered handful of other orchestras. Women now have chairs in the musical organization and so do Negroes.

Recipient of praise from internationally prominent critics, the Los Angeles Philharmonic has made a solid indentation on the ranks of American orchestras. For a while — during 1957 and 1958 — there were those who said that the orchestra was the peer of any such organization in the world.

On Sunday night, the orchestra continues its comeback.

Slowpoke

LAKE WORTH, Fla. (UPI) — The ladies on the professional golf tour call Kathy Cornelius "Prontito." It's their version of the more common Spanish word "pronto" although Kathy's anything but fast. She is by far the slowest and most deliberate player on the circuit.

Home Team

GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI) — The Green Bay Packers started playing football in 1919 when Curly Lambeau organized a scrub team of former Green Bay high school stars.
